FREE EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE FOR TRANSFER OF KNOWLEDGE (FEAT)

OBJECTIVES:

The main objective of the scheme is to provide free educational assistance for transfer of knowledge to neighboring Education Institutions better gradation and quality enhancement.

About College:

When the institute was established in 1986 in rural area of Marathwada region collective efforts were taken by founder faculty members and institute management for quality education for first generation learners. Being the first center of higher education in taluks and by virtue of its geographical conditions, the college opened its doors of erudition to knowledge seekers in the undeveloped vicinity as well as those from the academically under privileged of the high ranges of Paranda. The college through three and half decades of uncompromising journey has grown into a pioneering institution offering 05 under graduate programmes, 01 post graduate programmes. The institution offers B. Voc. Programmes in Broadcasting and Journalism and Professional Accounting and Taxation, YCMOU Study Centre functioning in our college plays a vital role in offering continuing education to those who can't attend regular colleges.

Accreditation journey of College:

As a single arts faculty institute, first time accredited with C grade in 2004. After accreditation, college started B. Sc. on non-grant basis and in 2014 started B. Com on grant basis. In 2014 college undergone reaccreditation process with B grade with CGPA 2.11. As a part of constant academic quality Enhancement College started B. Voc. programme in 2018 under UGC NSQF guidelines and started M. Sc. in 2019. In 3rd cycle as a result of continuous efforts college reaccredited with 'A' grade with CGPA 3.15.

About Scheme:

After getting 'A' grade in NAAC, college decided to provide free assistance for accreditation of Non-Accredited and Accredited neighboring Higher Education Institutions for better gradation and quality enhancement. Under this scheme some colleges visited our institute and also our faculty members worked as resource persons, college level pre NAAC visits.
